WEEK IN REVIEW

It has been an amazing first week at Camp Gan Izzy! Our week started with some wonderful activities including ice cream making, a treasure hunt, relay races, and a balloon show with Brad of Circus Delights! The 10-12 year old girls also had a wonderful time sailing on the Ottawa River, while the 2-6 year olds enjoyed a musical performance from Monkey Rock! On Wednesday, we visited the Canadian Science and Technology Museum where our campers were able to walk through a train, learn about space and the human body and explore the Krazy Kitchen! Thursday, we decorated our own aprons and baked our own kosher cupcakes! All of our campers also participated in dance lessons with Luv2groove, an art workshop with Young Rembrandts and a Karate class with Domenic of Douvris Karate! On Friday our campers are making their own Challah bags, having a woodworking workshop with Scotty Willis and a visit from The Game Truck. The campers also baked delicious challah in time for Shabbat and to celebrate the end of the week with a Hawaiian Shabbat Party and a luau show by the counselors! It has been an action-packed first week at CGI and our counselors can't wait for next week!

Shabbat Shalom

PARSHAS PINCHAS

"Because they are precious to Him, He counts them all the time."

In this week's torah portion, Hashem tells Moshe to count all of the men between the ages of 20 and 60. These are the men who will receive a part of the Holy Land. The total count is 601,730.

For Hashem, counting Jews is far more than keeping a score which he does not need, rather it is Hashem's way of telling each and every one of us: "You matter to Me. Deeply. You're not just a number. You're on My speed-dial."

Of all the commands G d gave Israel, the one to conduct a census, a seemingly purposeless task, expresses His love for them most. To Hashem, we are each like a shining gemstone, each one of us a treasure.

To the Rebbe, just like Moshe, counting Jews was counting diamonds. On Sunday afternoons, the Rebbe would stand outside the door of his office giving dollars and blessing each person individually for hours on end.

One Sunday, an elderly woman who had been waiting in line for a few hours marveled to the Rebbe about how he, in his late eighties, could stand on his feet for so many hours dispensing the dollars, while she was totally exhausted from the long wait in the line that stretched for hours!

The Rebbe beamed and replied, "When you are counting diamonds, you don't get tired."

To the Rebbe, like Moshe before him, counting Jews was counting diamonds.

Always remember that each one of you in Camp Gan Izzy is a treasure to Hashem and when you keep the torah and mitzvos so very carefully, you shine like the brightest gems!

CAMP SONG

Welcome aboard the ship
Where are we headed?
To a place full of gems
It's Treasure Island

We're searching for the gold
We're gonna discover
What the Torah and Mitzvos have to offer

Let's sail these windy seas
You and me
Together it'll be
The summer of our dreams
Push it to the limit
P-p-p-p push it
Everybody jump and scream

Camp Gan Izzy
Let me hear you scream
Summer Eighteen
The best you've ever seen

We're gonna leave with bags of treasure
We're gonna always stick together

Cuz we're in a ship with a destination
And we're gonna be the ones
To bring Geula
